It is all right to let your little girls and boys run about barefooted once in a while, but not all the time. Their poor little feet soon become big, broad and swollen, and they won't thank you for that when they grow into men and women.

We have imported a line of shoes especially made for school children. They are strong and neat. You will have no reason to complain about the price.

Kindly also bear in mind that we have the finest lines of Ladies' and Men's shoes from the greatest shoe firm in the world.

DEATH OF WILLIAM DUNBAR.

A prominent contractor and builder dies at the Malulani Hospital.—The Mokihana goes ashore.

WORK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT.

Many cases disposed of—Assailant of Feuerpile gets one year.—The Porto Rican who assaulted Pican so gets two years.

DEATH OF WILLIAM DUNBAR.

William Dunbar an aged mason who was stricken with paralysis at the Wailuku Hotel last week died at the Malulani Hospital on Tuesday morning. Mr. Dunbar bore an excellent reputation and had worked at his trade in San Francisco and Honolulu many years. Spreckels bank in Honolulu was built by him many years ago. Mr. Dunbar was at one time a prominent contractor and builder and was well to do but of recent years has been in feeble health which prevented him from carrying on his trade as in former times. On Tuesday Mrs. Dunbar arrived in Wailuku, accompanied by her brother Thomas Lucas to be present at the funeral services.

The services were conducted by Lodge Maur A. F. & A. M. of which Mr. Dunbar had been a member for many years.

MOKIHANA WRECKED OFF KAHAKULOA.

The little schooner Mokihana owned by Eddie Devauchelle left Honolulu last Wednesday for Pukoo with a cargo of merchandise consigned to various parties, principally to the Meyers Brothers.

She encountered the Kona which raged last week, and all of her sails were torn off after which she drifted for some days and on last Saturday about two o'clock she struck the rocks in Kahakuloa and was totally wrecked. She was recently purchased by Eddie Devauchelle of Pukoo Molokai who was in Wailuku attending Circuit Court as a grand juror at the time of the disaster. All of the four members of the crew got off safely but one was caught by the undertow and one foot was badly hurt. Nearly all the cargo was a loss and the little schooner rapidly went to pieces.

TRIAL JURY BEGINS WORK.

Promptly at ten o'clock on Monday morning the trial jury began its work the following jury being empaneled to try the cause of the Territory of Hawaii versus Raymond Riho on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder. A. M. Feteira, Wm. Kauwenaole, D. H. Davis, P. F. Peck, H. B. McCarriston, E. H. Cockett, D. C. Lindsay, Geo. Gibb, W. K. Buchanan and George Cummings.

On the night of January 5th 1906 Riho struck a police officer in the head at Kihai and badly stunned him. The reason of the assault is believed to be that at a former time the same officer arrested the Porto Rican.

He was defended by Attorney J. M. Vivas and the Territory was represented by Assistant Attorney General Wm. S. Fleming. The jury found the defendant guilty of a lower offence. He was sentenced to one year at hard labor.

On Monday evening it was found that a special venire was necessary.

The following jurors were drawn R. A. Wadsworth, T. A. Lloyd, E. A. Peck, (excused) P. Cockett, S. Kellinot, Dan T. Carey, T. W. Ferguson, J. B. Shand, J. L. Osmer, M. G. Pascoal, S. B. Harry, W. G. Scott, H. B. Penhallow, Lot C. Kealoha and James Kirkland.

On Tuesday the special venire of jurymen being on hand the case against Louis Rosario was taken up.

Rosario is the Porto Rican charged with assaulting John Picanso on the 23rd day of February with a pick axe, striking him with the same over the apex of the heart.

In the absence of an employed attorney the court assigned Enos Vincent to defend him. A number of jurymen were excused for cause and the jury as it stood completed were C. D. Lufkin, D. C. Lindsay, J. H. Evans, A. F. Feteira, M. G. Pascoal, S. B. Harry, H. P. McCarriston, D. H. Davis, E. H. Cockett, Naene and F. P. Peck. Several witnesses were called and a case was made out that would be hard to break through. Kailwai an old native from Waihee was the first witness. He had been in the employ of the Picanso Bros.

He testified the defendant followed Picanso and without a word or warning struck him on the left breast, illustrating the motions of the defendant and identifying the pick used. The defendant after striking Picanso, ran away toward town. Cross examination only tended to strengthen the prosecutions case. Louis Rosario the defendant on the stand testified that Picanso owed him money for labor performed at Huelo and on the morning of the assault requested its payment. At this Picanso, he says drew a revolver upon which he drew his pick and struck him, with the intention of knocking the same from his hand.

This was evidently not believed by the jury that heard the case as they soon returned with a verdict of guilty. He was found guilty of an assault in the first degree with a recommendation for mercy and was sentenced to two years at hard labor.

On Wednesday morning Thomas Bonisis was tried for child stealing. He was defended by J. M. Vivas.

The offence was stealing a twelve-years old child, Bertha Padua from her home in Waihee and taking her to his home in Hamakua under a promise of marriage if she went with him and a threat that he would kill her if she did not.

Thursday morning a jury was sworn into try Ah Ko on a charge of beugatory.

Attorney J. L. Coke was appointed by the Court to defend the accused who was charged with burglarizing the store of the Maui Dry Goods and Grocery Company. The testimony went to show that the defendant had entered the store through a back window and took from the store some pieces of blue denim, Alpaca and other clothing and sold them to a Chinese merchant in town for the sum of Three Dollars. The jury found the defendant guilty of burglary in the first degree.

This case was followed by the trial of Ing Tai who was charged with adultery. J. M. Vivas defended the defend A verdict of guilty was quickly given by the jury.

Friday morning Cecelia Rodrigues was before a jury on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. There is a strong belief among some eyewitnesses that a job was intended to put up on the Porto Rican to make a scape goat of him in order to shield a friend.

At any rate the star witness who by the way had told many and varied stories about the affair fell completely down as a witness and denied having seen what he had claimed to see when he was before the district magistrate. The assistant Attorney-General had the case dismissed.

An innocent man has been confined in Jail for five months as a result of storied by worthless witnesses.

GEARS ATTITUDE ON JAP IMMIGRATION.

Doubtless an attorney of Judge Gears ability and experience can be of great service to his clients in getting them into America. But the greater his skill the greater the injury does he do not only to his clients but to the whole of his own people.

Judge Gear knows as well as any intelligent American that the sending of Japanese to America will in the course of a few years cause untold strife, disorder, and bloodshed, culminating in stringent laws that will make it impossible for them to enjoy the advantages that they now enjoy.

Judge Gears boasted Americanism is at last shown up in its true light and by his own acts too.
